Ethics Workshop Post Survey

NUMBER:

I. In the scenario in which you took the role of the doctor, (circle one for each question)

a. How comfortable did you feel counseling the patient about the possible intervention(s)? Comfortable/Somewhat comfortable/Undecided /Somewhat uncomfortable/ Uncomfortable

b. If she/they decided to have the intervention, how comfortable would you feel providing the intervention, assuming you have the appropriate training? Comfortable/ Somewhat comfortable/ Undecided /Somewhat uncomfortable/Uncomfortable

c. If you chose not to provide the requested service, how comfortable would you feel referring the patient to another provider who could offer these services? Comfortable/Somewhat comfortable/ Undecided/ Somewhat uncomfortable/ Uncomfortable

Role-playing the PHYSICAN required/involved/led to:

Full compromise	partial compromise	no effect on	affirmation
of my moral integrity	of my moral integrity	my moral integrity	of my moral integrity

Role-playing the PHYSICIAN changed my understanding of the physician's role:

Not at all-----Somewhat----Significantly If so, how was your understanding changed?

Role-playing the PHYSICIAN changed my understanding of the patient:

Not at all-----Somewhat----Significantly If so, how was your understanding changed?

II. In which scenario did you role play the patient?

Role-playing the PATIENT changed my understanding of the patient:

Not at all-----Somewhat-----Significantly If so, how was your understanding changed?

Role-playing the PATIENT changed my understanding of the physician's role: Not at all-----Somewhat-----Significantly

If so, how was your understanding changed?

III. Obligations of a physician who objects to a legal medical procedure requested by a patient

Is it ethical for a physician to explain to the patient why he or she objects to the requested procedure? Only if the patient asks Yes Undecided No Is the physician obligated to present all legal options to the patient, including information about obtaining the requested procedure? Undecided Yes No Is the physician obligated to refer the patient to a physician who does not object to the requested procedure? Undecided Yes No

IV. Back to the Pre-Session Survey...

Regarding the 28 year old woman facing an unintended pregnancy in the pre-workshop survey, how comfortable would you feel providing non-directive options counseling?

Comfortable / Somewhat comfortable / Undecided / Somewhat Uncomfortable / Uncomfortable

If this workshop changed your comfort level with providing her non-directive counseling, why so?